COOLER HEADS MUST PREVAIL IN STATE LABOR CRISIS

Both sides need to come together, develop mutually beneficial solution for long-term future

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Johnny L. Thomas released the following statement regarding the statewide debate over public employee benefits:

“We all know that Wisconsin is making national headlines due to ongoing battle between the Governor, the Legislature and public employee unions. All parties have every right to do what they’re doing, but it’s unfortunate that public servants are being portrayed in a negative light. The unions have indicated that they are doing their part by agreeing to benefit cuts. They want to be part of the solution for all taxpayers.

“For the sake of all of us, I hope that cooler heads will prevail in State government. We must not let these events distract our State from developing a sustainable long-term strategy that is mutually beneficial to both taxpayers and public servants.”
